Welcome to the Oregon Burlesque Festival

The Oregon Burlesque Festival is an annual celebration of theatrical performances that combine satire, comedy, dance, drag, and adult entertainment. This 2-show event showcases the best of an art form where performers defy social and gender norms. The Friday, September 22nd showcase features local and regional talent, with a few special appearances from past artists. Performers on Saturday, September 23rd will compete in a jovial competition, judged by a celebrity panel that includes previous winners, local icons, and a living legend from the Golden Age of burlesque. Titles awarded include "Most Iconic," "Biggest Tease," "Keepin' it Weird," "Stayin' Classy," "Most Comedic," "Wild Card," and the coveted "Queen of the Roses."

Past Queen of the Roses winners include Portland's own glam-rock goddess Natasha Riot (2017), world-renowned performer and costumer J.Von Stratton (2015), the decadently dark performance artist Nox Falls (2018), and the Burlesque Hall of Fame's freshly crowned 2023 Miss Exotic World: Samson Night (2019).

Your Oregon Burlesque Festival team of producers, performers, and crew would like to take a moment to acknowledge that this production takes place on the traditional lands of the tribes of Multnomah, Kathlamet, Clackamas, and Cowlitz indigenous communities; the lands of the Chinook, Tualatin, Kalapuya, and Molalla bands of native peoples; and many other indigenous tribes who've made their homes along the Columbia River. In the spirit of honor and respect, we recognize the past, present, and emerging elders who fight for reparations, reclamation, sovereignty, and justice.

Friday Night
Headlining are the reigning 2022 Queens of Roses, from Vancouver BC, La Dame Derrière and The Lady Chiffon! La Dame Derrière is a potent mix of sensuality, soft curves, and bisexual angst. She burst onto the burlesque scene in 2017, bringing both high drama from her years as an opera singer and down n' dirty grinds from her experience as a blues dancer. Packing lipstick and lust, The Lady Chiffon has been performing with British Columbia's pre-eminent geeky theatrical and performance troupe, Geekenders, since 2019. A fiery Leo, she brings sensuality and smolders to the stage and loves to make the audience burn. This duo brought Portland to its knees with their winning performance in September, and promise to be bringing something even more decadently queer for their step-down performance!

RiRi SynCyr

Friday night hosted by RiRi SynCyr. Known as the Mayor of Chubbystown, Portland-based performer RiRi SynCyr has been involved in the burlesque community since 2003. This plus sized Puerto Rican cutie learned her love of performing from her parents. Raised by a salsa musician and professional bassoonist, RiRi channels her ancestors through her colorful costumes, character, creativity, and musicality.

A message from Holly Dai

I want to take a moment to thank my two other producers who have joined me in this journey called The Oregon Burlesque Festival. When I started producing this festival in 2013, I had little idea how much was needed to grow into such an incredible weekend that has touched the lives of performers and audience members for the past eight years.

Lola Coquette, you have made the festival notable with your expertise in crafting promotions and curation of our set list from minute to minute to create a beautiful flow and extraordinary show. Your performances add delight all to see and I adore how your challenge the festival to seek equitable practices and be a festival that other festivals strive to meet.

RiRi SynCyr, you are such a welcome producer that knows how to balance and respond with grace and intention. Your detail oriented mind has helped bring to fruition practices in the festival, I only dreamed of when we began. Thank you for editing when I can't SPLe I mean spell (also pardon if I make spelling mistakes it's always me) and give me the ability to make mistakes.

I adore you both for making the Oregon Burlesque Festival all it can be and more!

With love
Holly Dai

Special thank you to our amazing stage manager Kissy LaMay. Thank you for being our rock star for three years. We love you and we couldn't do this without you!
